

God's Purpose for Your Life

Theme

God has a unique plan and purpose for each of us. Our job is to seek it out and live it out with passion and obedience.

Key Verse

Jeremiah 29:11 – “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future.”

Message

God has a specific purpose for each of us. He has designed us with unique gifts, talents, and passions that He wants us to use for His glory. Our purpose isn't always clear at first, but God promises to guide us. We must seek His will and trust that He will reveal the path He has for us.

Sermon

Brothers and sisters, each of us is here for a reason. You are not here by accident. God has a purpose for your life. Jeremiah 29:11 tells us that God has plans to prosper us, to give us a hope and a future. These aren't just empty words; they are a promise from God.

But here's the thing: God's purpose for your life isn't always something that is immediately clear. Sometimes, we wonder if we're on the right path. We might even feel like we've missed God's will. But God has not forgotten you. He has a unique purpose for your life, and He will guide you step by step.

Look at the life of David. He was just a young shepherd boy when God called him to be king. He didn't know it at the time, but God had a purpose for him. David had to walk through years of uncertainty, hardship, and waiting. But in the end, God's purpose for David's life was fulfilled.

The same is true for you. God has given you gifts and talents that are meant to be used for His glory. You may not know exactly what that looks like yet, but trust that He will guide you. Seek His will, and He will reveal the path He has for you.

God's purpose for your life is not something you need to figure out alone. Lean on Him, trust in His timing, and walk in obedience. He will lead you to the life He has designed for you.
